FOR STUDENTS ENROLLING IN GOVERNMENT SCHOOLS

Schools are required to use the Interstate Student Data Transfer Note (ISDTN) in accordance with the protocols jointly developed and agreed by the Australian Government, State and Territory Education Authorities, the Independent and Catholic education sectors through the Standing Council on School Education and Early Childhood (see: http://scseec.edu.au).

Enrolment*

PART A Consent requested

PART A Consent gained by new school

New school requests data from previous school

Flagged information is followed up (if required)

Previous school informed of student’s enrolment
at the new school

PART A Consent not given

PART B
Consent requested

PART B
Consent given

Previous school informed
of student’s enrolment
at the new school

Previous school not informed of enrolment at new school

PART B
Consent not given

* The principal will consider the enrolment according to policy/procedures of the jurisdiction.