FOR STUDENTS ENROLLING IN NON-GOVERNMENT SCHOOLS

Schools are required to use the Interstate Student Data Transfer Note (ISDTN) in accordance with the protocols jointly developed and agreed by the Australian Government, State and Territory Education Authorities, the Independent and Catholic education sectors through the Standing Council on School Education and Early Childhood (see: http://scseec.edu.au/Publications/ISDTN.aspx).

Flow Chart for Gaining Consent

FROM A GOVERNMENT SCHOOL

- Application for enrolment
  - PART A Consent requested
    - PART A Consent given
      - Request data from previous school
        - Flagged information is followed up
          - Process application
            - Enrolment completed
          - Enrolment not completed
    - PART A Consent not given

FROM A NON-GOVERNMENT SCHOOL

- Application for enrolment
  - Request data from previous school
    - Flagged information is followed up
      - Process application
        - Enrolment completed
        - Enrolment not completed
  - PART B Consent requested
  - PART B Consent given
  - PART B Consent not given. No further action on ISDTN process

If PART A or B consent given advise previous school of enrolment
Do not advise previous school of enrolment